

About the Speakers

Martin Winslow is the director of Multiplying Churches for the Missouri Baptist Convention. He also leads the Cross-Cultural-Collective in St. Louis through the St. Louis Metro Baptist Association. He formerly served full-time as the missions pastor for Canaan Baptist Church in St. Louis.

Winslow is the founder and president of Bethlehem Christian Academy. BCA starts Christian schools in hard-to-reach places around the world as a means of sharing the gospel and planting churches. BCA has partnerships in Senegal, Liberia, Zambia, Burundi, Malawi, India, and Mexico. These schools minister to more than 2,000 full-time students. He's also the Director of Canaan Global, a ministry of Canaan Baptist Church that trains pastors internationally.

He holds a B.A. in Biblical Studies from SBU and a Master's in Biblical Languages from Midwestern Baptist Theological Seminary.

Winslow has been married to his high school sweetheart, Amy, for more than 25 years. He has five children: Noah, Anna, Emma, Laura, and Nati.

Pastor/Wife Conference Cost

We have made the cost minimal; your state convention, local association and Calvary Baptist Church have underwritten most of the costs.

Registration Cost $15 per couple
